Cultural Capital at Wilson Stuart School

Our aim is to give children the knowledge and skills to prepare them for what comes next in their lives. Cultural Capital is the essential knowledge that children need to prepare them for their future success – we aim to give students every opportunity to participate in a wide range of learning experiences, all the time, within and beyond their classroom.

How Cultural Capital is delivered at Wilson Stuart School:

Art

- Take inspiration from a variety of cultures and artists to inform work e.g., Yayoi Kusama, Van Gogh.
- Use music in lessons to support wellbeing, introducing learners to a range of different music styles to encourage/inform interests and see how it may inform drawing style, for example inspiration taken from Kandinsky.
- Share different types of art and techniques for learners to practise and develop skills
